text in form of email for better tracking .

I have ordered these for after the parade dinner. It was $65 for 10 spandex washable table cloths. If the community center cannot afford them, I will add them to my collection of tableware. We have been spending about $20 an event on plastic table cloths. I have sent it to Michael May and asked if I can order a package of Black and blue for their upcoming event flout of fire territory . He thought that would be great. We can share and mix the colors as needed. I approved of fire department purchase please order ASAP.

If a decision can not be made through email, please add to agenda for 11/12 special meeting.

Thank you.

Rachel
